Not The BCFM Politics Show

Beginning his working life In the aviation industry trained by the BBC, Tony Gosling is a British land rights activist, historian and investigative radio journalist.

Over the last 20 years he has been exposing the secret power of the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) and the elite Bilderberg Conferences where the dark forces of corporations, media, banks and royalty conspire to accumulate wealth and power through extortion and war.

Tony has spent much of his life to advocating solutions which hailed the wealth divide, such as free housing for all on the press which reflects the concerns of ordinary people rather than attempting to lead opinion, sensationalise or dumb down. Find out more Saturday 8th of July
